You draw us close, You bring us near
You open doors and cast out fear
You prove your love Day by day
And still we follow, our own way

CHORUS

Why do we take your hand
And two steps forward
To let go again
And take a step back
Your mercy endures
You grace is true
Please show me how
To keep running to You

You show us truth and revelations
You shed Your light and open our eyes
Your Spirit is always leading
And yet we choose to be blind

BRIDGE

I want to run to You
I want to run oh Lord to You
